Wanted Poster Blurb Template

Directions: Below you will begin writing your ideas for the blurb on your wanted poster. There are three elements you must have in your writing. Use the questions what, who and why to help you write your blurb below. Look at the wanted poster example on the blackboard for help. Remember to be positive with your character traits and, keep them school appropriate!

1. What did you do? (e.g., cleaned up the art room) _____

_____

2. Who wants you? (e.g., Tiverton Middle School) _____

_____

3. Why do they want you? (e.g., to keep the art room clean) _____

_____

Directions: Write two to three sentences that take your answers to the three questions above and put them into a blurb for your wanted poster. You must write in third person. Please use your name, or the pronouns he, she, him or her. Do not use "I."
